Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Part I, Line 1a	Part I, Line 1a - Travel for companions - With prior approval from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the Institution paid for bona fide business related travel expenses for the President's spouse, who is also an employee of the institution - Housing allowance or residence for personal use - The institution provides lodging for the President and family in institution owned property for the convenience of the employer. The institution provides housing down payment assistance to new faculty and senior staff members - Health or social club dues or initiation fees - The institution pays monthly dues for approved Cabinet members at selected clubs for the sole purpose of conducting institutional business at these locations, no personal social activities are reimbursed - Personal services - The institution provides cleaning services to the President's house as maintenance of a campus-owned building, which is used for institutional events as well as being the personal residence of the President and family. The institution also pays for phone and cable service to this campus building. The only item above that is included in taxable compensation is the housing down payment assistance to new faculty and senior staff members.
	Part I, Line 4a	- President Klawe participated in a nonqualified deferred compensation plan under section 457(f) during the year. As of December 31, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010, and as of June 30 2011 ("valuation date"), if the President is still employed by the College, the College credits to the President's Supplemental Retirement Account an amount equal to 12% of the President's base salary for the period beginning with the immediately preceding January 1 and ending on such valuation date which exceeds the dollar amount specified by section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. The balance accumulates until the President becomes fully vested. Vesting occurs upon the earliest of the following conditions: if the President is still employed by the College on June 30, 2011, termination due to death, permanent disability, or termination without cause. If the President terminates her employment prior to becoming fully vested, all amounts payable in the Supplemental Retirement Account is forfeited. No amounts were paid during the current year.
